

Give Back to the Community

Unless someone likes you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not.
Theodore Geisel (Dr. Seuss)

Congratulations on giving back to the community!

The Reflection

This brief writing assignment will allow you to share your volunteer experience. Please share in writing the following in at least two clear and thoughtful paragraphs:

- Describe what you did for your volunteer project
- Share what was enjoyable and perhaps not so enjoyable about the project
- Write about the ways in which you view your volunteer hours as a service to others
- Write about your overall impressions of this experience:
(Describe how you felt doing this project. Would you be willing to work with this community partner again? Why or why not? What changes would you make so that this might be a more meaningful experience?)

NOTE: Illegible or poorly written Reflections will be returned to students.

Due: Seniors- NO LATER than April 27, 2012. All others- NO LATER than May 4, 2012. Volunteer hours will be recorded only when the Reflection paper is completed.
